

Be Creative

George Hail Library
Summer Reading Adventure
2009
Be Creative @Your Library

It's your summer to be Be Creative.

Enjoy stories, fun filled games and inventive crafts with the Summer Reading Club that will meet every Wednesday afternoon at 3:30. Ages 5-12

Sign up starts on June 22. Children of all ages can sign up to keep track of books they have read. Prizes and coupons to Rhode Island attractions will be awarded. Come into the library any time to record your books and to get new ones.

Also be sure to call the Children's Room at the George Hail Library (245-7686) starting June 17 to sign up for these exciting events full of storytelling, lively music, dance and delightful performances! These programs are appropriate for children ages 5-12 only.

Tuesday June 30 3:00
Napua O' Polynesia
Tropical Island Dancers

Journey to Polynesia in song and dance as these dancers, drummers and musicians bring you on a tour to the tropical islands of Hawaii, Tahiti, New Zealand and the Philippines.

Tuesday July 21 2:30
Julie Garnett
Musician

Sing-along, Dance-along and have Fun along with Julie in the grand and glorious "Julie Garnett's Concert for Kids."

Tuesday August 4 1:00
Katie Latimer
Storyteller

Be amazed with stories of adventure and excitement as Katie Latimer brings her unique style to an all new show, with unforgettable characters and fantastic twists and turns. Come along for the ride!

Wednesday August 19 6:30
The Great Baldini
Magician

Come see the Great Baldini in his 2009 show "Always Be Creative." full of audience participation, sure to entertain the inner child in all of us.

The "Summer Reading Club Party" will follow this performance . There will be an award ceremony with prizes and certificates for all participants. Refreshments will be served!*

*Please call the Children's Room at the George Hail Library for more information and to register for all programs.
245-7686*

